Liseros, Pedro 22 Private July 20 Santa Fe Capt. Mink 3 mos. July 20 Santa Fe Capt. Whitall 65 55.00 5.00 [Died Aug 28th 1861, at Albuquerque N.M. of a wound from a pistol-ball received while on patrol. Pay due from enrollment to date of death.

Each soldier, borne on this Roll as "Present", has pay due from enrollment to the date of discharge of the Company.
Each soldier, opposite to whose name the corresponding valuations are placed, furnished his own horse and horse-equipment, and is entitled to 40 c. per diem for their use and risk.
Each soldier is entitled to $3.50 per month in lieu of clothing, from which is to be deducted the amount "Due 26 c. for clothing."
No Return of the public property for which any of the officers of this Company were responsible have been shown to the Inspector.

It is not known to the Inspector whether or not the discharged soldiers of this Company were furnished with subsistence from the place of discharge to their homes or place of enrollment. Upon the original Muster-Out Roll, signed by Capt. W. H. Lewis, 5th Inf., both travelling columns are filled as above, without remark.
